March 2014

To: High School Educators and Asian American & Pacific Islander Students
From: Helen L. Ying, AAYLC.org Chair
Re: 22nd Annual Asian American Youth Leadership Conference

The 22nd Annual Asian American Youth Leadership Conference will be held on Friday, May 16, 2014 at Concordia University. The goal of the conference is to help our youth achieve their potential by promoting education, fostering leadership development, cultivating self-confidence, providing resources, and encouraging civic engagement. This year's theme is "Who Am I?"

The Planning Committee consists of members from the Chinese, Filipino, Japanese, Korean, Laotian, Vietnamese, and other ethnic American communities as well as representatives from schools, community-based organizations, Concordia University, and the Chinese American Citizens Alliance. We plan this conference as a community event and anticipate 500+ students representing many diverse backgrounds in attendance.

We look forward to having students from your school represented at the conference. Please mark your calendar with the deadlines as noted for the applications and forms associated with the conference. All application forms for our programs and competitions can be downloaded at AAYLC.org. Please refer to the contact persons listed below should you have questions regarding any of the programs.

Conference Registration

Deadline: See below

Each school should identify a designee to select students for attendance based on criteria established by the Planning Committee. A packet of conference information, including the selection criteria, will be forwarded to the school designee by email attachment and/or mail package. Click here to download. Please note that each school must send a chaperone(s) to supervise their students throughout the conference day. Early conference registration is $15 per participant from January to April 25. Late registration is $20 per participant after April 25. For further information concerning registration, please contact Melissa Thongtan at 503-740-5929 or registration@aaylc.org.

Student Ambassador Program

Deadline: Monday, March 10

The goal of the Student Ambassador Program is to allow students to hone their leadership skills by participating in the planning and promotion of the conference. One student ambassador will be selected from the applicants at each school and his/her registration fee will be waived in appreciation for their service. Furthermore, all student ambassadors are recognized at the conference for their contribution. Contact person: Hoa Nguyen at 225-603-3481 or ambassadors@aaylc.org.

Logo Design Competition

Deadline: Saturday, April 12

The goal of the Logo Design competition is to allow students to demonstrate their creativity and artistic abilities. Winning entries will be on display at the conference and published on the AAYLC.org website. The winner(s) will also receive prizes and recognition at the conference. Contact person: May Chan at 503-819-4226 or logo-contest@aaylc.org.

Scholarship Awards

Deadline: Saturday, April 12

There are three scholarship awards: $1500, $1000, and $500. Please share this information with the college counselor at your school. Contact person: Melanie Ying at 503-887-7214 or scholarship@aaylc.org.

Thousands of students have benefited from this conference in the past and I am confident that the upcoming conference will serve students equally well if not better. Please be mindful of the various associated competitions/programs as stated above and their respective deadlines. We appreciate your help in forwarding the materials to the appropriate school contact. Thank you for your continued support.
